Primary Meetings To-Night.

Remember that the Electors of this city, in favor of the principles adopted by the Madison Convention of July 13, 1854, and opposed to our State and National Administrations, are called by their love of Freedom to meet at the several places below named in each Ward, at 7½ o'clock this evening, to elect two delegates to the Congressional Convention, which is to meet at Rochester, next Wednesday, viz.:

First Ward—At the Court House.
Second Ward—At the Mansion House.
Third Ward—At the Louisiana House.
Fourth Ward—At the Menomonee Hotel.
Fifth Ward—At the Niagara Hotel.

The next Congress, to be elected chiefly this fall, will be looked to by the people with more interest than any that has been held during a whole generation. It is there Freedom and Slavery, organized into two great parties, will first look each other openly in the face. There the great battle will be begun, which will be continued till Freedom or Slavery triumphs.

There are peculiar reasons why this Congressional District should send a true and fit representative. The events of the past few months have called the public attention of the Free States and of the Union to this District. Here the first Judicial decision in favor of Freedom and State Rights, in opposition to Slavery and Federal usurpations, was given by one of the Justices of our Supreme Court, and that decision has been responded to by the free presses of the North with a warmth and heartiness which is an earnest that that decision will soon be recognized as the law of the land.

It is meet that a District which has thus led off so gloriously in this good work, should send a fitting Representative to fight the battle of Freedom at Washington.

At these meetings Assembly District Committees should be appointed.

THE NEWS has discovered that the Harbor bill which the President vetoed was more favorable to the South than to the North, that Sentor Walker voted for the amendment to allow the President to strike out such appropriations as he deemed unconstitutional, on account of assurances from the President that he favored Western River and Harbor Appropriations. This is certainly a new phase in Presidential management. The President, it seems, according to the News, went round among the Western Senators log-rolling, promising to go for their Harbors, if they would give him power to strike out such appropriations as he pleased. And Senator Walker was green enough to be hoodwinked by such a President.

The News also publishes for a verity a pretended letter of an Alabama slave, to show that the condition of a slave is better than that of the poorer classes and free colored population of the North. For what purpose? Not to justify slavery, but only to extol its blessings: and to show how much preferrable a life of slavery is to a life of freedom if a man is free. And also a pledge to its Southern masters that it is ready to do any work required of it. The letter bears internal evidence that it was not written by a slave, and least of all by a slave so degraded as to hug his chains lovingly to his bosom. A few years more, and such apologies for slavery will be scarce in the free States.

WE assure the Janesville Gazette that our reference to the fact that but three Whigs in Rock County adhered to the old Whig organization, was to show the cordiality of the union. We have labored constantly, from the beginning, both in public and private, to promote harmony and union among all opposed to the Nebraska swindle and the Slavery-propagandism of the National Administration. We have done this, without any reference to its results to us personally, being ready to do our share of the work to be done to secure the triumph of Freedom. We trust that all jealousies, and causes of jealousies, will disappear, and that the members of the Republican party will be a unit.

SAFES.—The trial of BERLINER & BRUNO'S Safes took place yesterday afternoon, on the grounds of the late fire. The safe was subjected to an intense heat for five hours, till it was red hot and all the brass mountings melted off. Water was then played on it from a Fire Engine. All our bankers and business men who witnessed it, considered it a severer trial than often happens to a safe in a burning building.—This morning it was opened, and the smell of fire had not passed upon the books and papers. The steam from the water thrown on it had melted the glue from the binding of one of the books, and colored the newspapers to a brownish hue, but no essential damage was done.

The iron of which the safe was made was bought of Nazro & Co., and the work, even to the screws, was all done in this city. We regard the trial as completely successful, and establishing the reputation of these safes, as equal if not superior to any in market.

THE DOUGLAS MEETING, at Chicago, last evening, we learn by a friend who left there yesterday, was likely to be a very stormy one. Most of the shipping would be trimmed to half-mast for Douglas' vote against Harbors, the bells were to be tolled from 6 to 9 o'clock, and the people were to attend en masse, organize a meeting on the outside, and pass Anti-Nebraska Resolutions.

Illinois Organizing for Freedom.

In Putnam County a great meeting of 2,000 freemen of all parties organized under the Republican banner, adopted the Wisconsin Platform, and recommended a Convention at Bloomington, the 12th inst., to nominate a candidate for Congress. The Chicago Tribune gives a full account of the great Convention at Rockford, last Wednesday. It adopted the name of Republican, and nominated E. B. WASHBURNE, present member, by acclamation. The Tribune says:

"The chairman, Dr. LYMAN, who is a fine specimen of a man, and an old Tammany Hall Democrat, acted in a spirit of magnanimity which won its way to all hearts. His eloquence and ingenuousness were irresistible. He said he had acted with the Democratic party all of his life, and had frequently voted against his convictions, but he had done so the last time.—He desired a union of all who were opposed to slavery and in favor of freedom,—a union which would be permanent and ultimate in practical results. He was followed by Ex-Gov. BEBB, a Whig, in a similar spirit, urging the necessity of prompt and manly action to defeat the plotters against Liberty. He showed that so far as a national Whig party was concerned, it had no existence beyond a name. While Northern Whigs had acted with Northern Democrats, the Southern Whig members of Congress, almost without exception, had counselled with and supported Douglas and the administration in their attempts to perpetuate and extend slavery. He also showed that it was impossible, in the very nature of things, to have a national Whig, or national Democratic party. Northern Whigs and Democrats coalesced on the only principles at issue, and Southern Whigs and Democrats united against them. Slavery was the issue, and even though the people of the Free States would have avoided it if they co'd have done so with honor to themselves, they were not permitted to do so. It was forced upon them by Southern Whigs and Democrats acting as a unit. He therefore saw no honorable or safe alternative but the formation of a party which should embrace all the anti-slavery elements of the Union, and to such a party he was ready and willing to attach himself."

Other gentlemen addressed the Convention with great effect.

The Tribune continues:

"After the resolutions were adopted, the convention resolved to nominate a candidate for Congress. Before doing this, however, Hon. E. B. WASHBURNE was called upon the stand, and in a powerful speech exposed the machinations of the slave power, as he had seen it working during his Congressional career. He then complimented the convention for its boldness in cutting loose from all old political organizations, and declared that he stood with them on their platform, ready hereafter to work as a Republican.

"After Mr. W. closed a speech of nearly half an hour, it was moved that he be nominated by acclamation, which was carried unanimously, amid cheering and huzzas.

"Thus closed one of the most felicitous conventions we have ever attended, and it inaugurates a movement in Illinois, which our confidence in the generous and noble impulses of the people makes us believe will sweep over our prairies, and soon cause our State to stand as high, as the champion of liberty, as she has heretofore and does now stand low as the defender and propagator of slavery."

The great and good work of forming a party of Freedom which shall embrace all who are willing to coöperate for the overthrow of the Slave Power and the restoration of the rule of Liberty, is going on rapidly and effectively, and nothing, we trust, will prevent its consummation.

ANOTHER BOLTER.—David Wilmot, of Proviso notoriety, and who supported Pierce for President has written a letter denouncing the Administration. The following is an extract from it:

> The first blow must be aimed for the overthrow of the present National Administration—the mere tool and puppet of the slave power. Through the corrupting influence of its patronage upon the people's Representatives, freedom has been betrayed. It must be overwhelmed at every point with ignominious defeat. We cannot shorten its constitutional term of office, but we must strike down its allies in every state district and county, it must have no props in the states upon which to lean for the support of its iniquitous policy. No man should be elected to responsible office—Governor, Member of Congress, Representative — whose relations of friendship or alliance with the National Administration are open to suspicion. We must accept of nothing in the candidates presented for our suffrages short of undisguised hostility to the Ultra Pro-Slavery power at Washington. Anything short of this is folly, idle trifling, shilly shally nonsense; and designed in the end to lead the people, step by step into acquiescence in the policy and plans of Slavery. Let no candidate pretend to condemn the recent legislation of Congress, and yet hold himself in party alliance with the present administration. He cannot be trusted, and so sure as he is trusted so sure will the people and their rights again be betrayed. The man who will not face in manly and open resistance the aggressions of the slave power to-day cannot be relied upon to do so on the occasion of a future provocation. He is hopelessly rotten—unsound to the core, and will sacrifice his country's highest interest and glory for some paltry patizan consideration.

THE WHIG STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE of Michigan have called a State Convention to meet at Marshall, the 4th of October next, to nominate candidates for State officers. From the tone of the Whig press, we doubt not that the Convention will adopt the Republican ticket. The Detroit Tribune says:

"The Convention has not been called to gratify the factious purposes of those who wish to use it to aid the locofocos to retain their power, but for the sole purpose, we feel satisfied, of contributing to the success of the Independent, anti-Administration ticket, by re-nominating it. This will be done beyond a doubt, if true Whigs take the matter in hand, as we are sure they will."

A Democratic Convention, to nominate a candidate for Congress in place of John Wentworth, is to be held at Aurora on the 5th of October.

At Work.—The steam dredge has been at work during the past week, and is doing capital execution in excavating the middle ground of the canal. Should no obstacle present itself one month will finish it, and Menasha will be in possession of the most extensive water-power in the West.—Menasha Adv.

THE paragraph, going the rounds of the press, that Horace Greeley, Wm. B. Astor, P. T., and other capitalists had purchased the row of building facing the Bowling Green, in New York, for the purpose of erecting there a mammoth Hotel for the exclusive accommodation of colored people, is untrue.

THE Ohio Statesman says: "Lucy Stone, the eloquent lecturer on slavery, is, it is rumored, about to be married to a Cincinnati gentleman of fortune."

A mutual passion is oftimes inspired at a first interview, which a French poet has admirably expressed in a couplet, thus translated:—

"Soon is the youthful heart by passion moved;
He saw, and loved me—him I saw, and loved."

A Feast for the Fun Loving.

OUR HONEYMOON, and other Comicalities, from "PUNCH," an endless Feast of Fun, Humor and Sunshine, for the benefit of the dyspeptic.

The volume contains 600 pages, and eight full-page, fine tinted engravings from Cruikshank, Crowquill, and others.

"The papers which make up this work were selected from The London Punch, of whose merits it were as absurd to speak, as would be the attempt to give a new perfume to the rose."

This book is just the thing for Milwaukee. Every body here is fond of the ridiculous, at least we know how any amusement of that description is patronized here, while more sedate and instructive entertainment, are poorly supported. Well nevermind! They will read "OUR HONEYMOON."

We have also received from the same bookseller AGATHA BEAUFERT, which is one of the library of Standard Novels, of Stringer and Townsend, and deserves more than a passing notice. We will speak of it again hereafter.

THE DROUGHT.—We have just returned from another flying visit to Southern Illinois. With the exception of a few showers over a very limited portion of the country, the drought continues. Corn and potatoes are past all recovery. In some localities a half crop of the former may be realized, but take the whole country through and the average, we think, will be less than the fourth of a crop. The grass is dying out, and in several localities we noticed the underbrush in the timber was dying also. The whole face of the country is literally baked. Streams and wells that were never before known to fail are as dry as the uplands, and in some places cattle hvae to be driven miles to water. This drought is totally unprecedented in its fierceness and long continuance. Old corn has rapidly advanced in price. In one county we were in, farmers who were so fortunate as to have any, were selling it for one dollar per bushel at the crib. Stock hogs are a drug at any price.—There is no sale for them, and we were told in Bond county, that a large number could be had there for the taking.—Chicago Press, 1st inst.

A PASSING NOTICE OF OUR VILLAGE.—It is gratifying to us to state that this summer a number of new buildings have been erected on both sides of Rock river, thereby adding to the wealth and prosperity of Jefferson. Real estate has changed hands to a considerable extent, at an advance of from 50 to 100 per cent. Farms in our immediate vicinity and around us have been bought and sold at high prices; and brick and lumber is deposited on various lots throughout the village, preparatory for building, all indicative that this place is destined ere long to be ranked among the most flourishing inland towns in the State.—Jeff. Co. Jeff.

SAD BEREAVEMENT.—Rev. S. A. Baker, senior, proprietor and editor of the Democrat, of this city, has suffered a series of sad bereavements, during a few weeks past. Three children, a brother, and a brother's child, have, in that time, seen "the last of earth;" and yesterday his wife, after a long and painful illness, rendered up her spirit to her Maker. We extend to Mr. Baker our heartfelt sympathy.—Detroit Free Press, Aug. 24.

WE are credibly informed that a few public spirited individuals in this Pinery are about expending from their individual resources, seven thousand dollars, in removing obstructions, to the running of Lumber, on the Grand Rapids.—Hon. W. D. McINDOE leads off in this praiseworthy enterprize.—Steven's Pt. Pairy.

THE weather continues warm and dry—too dry for advantageous work at plowing by the farmers. Yet no injury has resulted to the fall crops.

P. S. We had a copious shower yesterday evening.—Fond. Union, 31st ult.

THE Quebec Mercury says that it is generally understood that Quebec will be made the military head quarters on the arrival of General Rowan's successor. Half of the military in Canada will soon embark for England, and will not be replaced.

Eighty-one days from the seed, (from the 7th of June to the 26th of August,) corn grew and ripened on the land broken up by Mr. C. F. Hutchinson, this spring. He brought us a specimen ear, which is perfectly ripe. It is the white, eight-rowed corn.—Waupaca Spirit.

Some pride themselves on a memory which is tenacious of every idea presented to it; but the most precious one is that which is forgeful of all that is low, immoral, and frivolous-retentive of whatever is honorable and useful; in accordance with man's destination. There is no merit in retaining what is unworthy of remembrance.

Where Rest May Be Found.

Tell me, ye winged winds,
That round my pathway roar.
Do you knot know some spot
Where mortals weep no more?
Some lone and pleasant dell,
Some Valley in the West,
Where, free from toil and pain,
The weary soul may rest!
The low winds softened in a whisper low,
And sighed for pity, as they answered—"No!"

Tell me, thou mighty deep,
Whose billows round me play,
Know'st thou some favored spot,
Some island far away,
Where wretched man may find
The bliss for which he sighs?
Where sorrow never lives,
And friendship never dies?
The loud waves rolling in perpetual flow,
Stopped for a while, and answered—"No!"

And thou, serenest moon,
That with such holy face
Dost look upon the earth,
Asleep in night's embrace—
Tell me in all thy rounds,
Hast thou not seen some spot
Where miserable man
Might find a happier lot?
Behind a cloud the moon withdrew in wo,
And sweet, but sad, responded—"No!"

Tell me, my secret soul,
O! tell me, Hope and Faith,
Is there no resting place,
From sorrow, sin and death?
Is there no happy spot
Where mortals may be blessed,
Where grief may find a balm,
And weariness a rest?
Faith, Hope and Love, best boons to mortals given,
Waved their bright wings and whispered—"Yes, in Heaven!"

Early Marriages.

A great deal has been said and written about early marriages, and many sensible and experienced individuals have warmly recommended the custom. But, early marriages, as understood by those persons, does not mean the marriage of children; a mistake into which so many in these days fall. The evils of these premature marriages are lasting and serious. They are well set forth in an article from the pen of lady in a recent number of the Christian Examiner, from which we make an extract, for the special consideration of parents whose children are approaching a marriageable age, and for such young persons who are in foolish haste to enter the bonds of wedlock.

> The other question we would have urged upon the sex relates to early marriage. We leave to the physician—who, however, is never thought of in connection with such events—the whole matter of physical consequences. But the terrible results of a sure maternal incapacity for the moral training of a child, cannot be exaggerated, And she who at eighteen would be at all qualified for the full resposibilities of a mother, would, be a more rare phenomenon than any in the annals of intellectual precocity.
> Repeatedly it has been our experience, in tracing out the history of some fellow-creature, singularly wayward, wrong-headed, and perhaps wrong-hearted, to find that this individual was the child of a child! The mother had been married under 17, and this had been her first born! The mystery was solved. The infant has come into the world to be almost exclusively under the management of one who still needed several years of training before she was fit to rule anywhere. Wholly ignorant of human nature, her own character undeveloped, her temper unsubdued, her experience nothing, her childish dread of thought or care, and the love of excitement still clinging to her, not yet sated with the pleasures of mere girlhood, she had imagined that simply to be a mother, brought with it dignity and knowledge enough for the office. She had scarcely a vague idea of the solemn responsibilities of her new office, or a conception of the cares with which that miraculous flower, the human soul, should be watched and tended in its unfolding. To her the infant was a charming plaything, a live doll to be dressed—or sometimes an annoyance and a burden.
> We feel more on this subject than we can express. We used to wonder as much as we dared wonder at anything, why fools were permitted to become mothers at all; till we observed how the children of very intellectual women were sometimes mismanaged, while those of worthy, untheorizing, even weak mothers, grew up in wisdom and goodness.—But as a general rule, early marriages naturally and obviously must bring into the community a set of beings, whose whole lives bear sad testimony to the inexperience, inefficiency, and fatal mistakes of the girl mother—to say nothing of the generally unreasonable, hasty, passionate severities of the boy-father—elated with being already the head of a family!"

A WOMAN'S MAGNANIMITY.—A miller's dog broke his chain; the miller ordered the maid servant to tie him up again. She was attacked and bitten by the dog. On hearing her cries, the miller and his people ran to her assistance. "Keep off!" said she, shutting the yard door, "the dog is mad. I am already bitten, and must chain him up alone.' Notwithstanding his biting she did not let him go, but chained him up, and then retired to her chamber, and with the noblest resignation prepared herself to die. Symptoms of hodrophobia soon broke out; and she died in a few days. The dog was killed without doing any further mischief.

THE SILENT WOMAN.—Madame Rignier, the wife of a law officer at Versailles, while talking in the presence of a numerous party, dropped some remarks which were out of place, though not important. Her husband reprimanded her before the whole company, saying.

'Silence, Madame, you're a fool!!

She lived twenty or thirty years afterwards and never uttered a single word even to her children! A pretended theft was committed in her presence, in the hope of taking her by surprise, but without effect, and nothing could induce her to speak. When her consent was required for the marriage of any of her children, she bowed her head, and signed the contract.

Woods on Fire.—The drouth of the past six weeks, and the extreme hot wheather, have so dried up and crisped vegetation, that fires were before Wednesday, running through the woods and fields in various quarters hereabouts. We hear of none of the newly cut hay being burnt yet, but fences suffered materially. On Tuesday night the sky was illuminated in a dozen places, North, East, and West, presenting a beautiful appearance, though telling too well of the ravages going on. We presume that the late rain put a stop to them.—Green Bay Advocate, 31 ult.

Agricultural Fair.—We notice preparations being made in the public square, clearing it of brush, &c., to accommodate the stock of the country around about which is expected here on the 26th and 27th days of the present month —Elkhorn (Wal. Co.,) Ind.

The brick Church in this village, being erected by the Methodist denomination, begins to make something of a show. The timbers for the steeple are raised, and the church is expected soon to be ready for service.—Elkhorn (Wal. Co.,) Ind.

Transfer.—We learn that our former townsman, Dr. D. Ward, has been transferred from the Light House at Bailey's Harbor to that of Two Rivers.—Green Bay Advocate, 31st ult.

Wind Mill.

The Kenosha Telegraph gives a detailed description of a wind mill for grinding grain, situated in the town of Somers, Kenosha Co., and owned by the Messrs. Ozanne. It says its form is almost precisely that of a light-house. The first story is 40 feet in diameter, of 16 equal sides. This is where grain is received, the store-room, and where tools, &c., are kept. The smut-machine is in this room, and a great hopper, in which the grain is thrown, and from which elevators receive it and carry it above.

The second story is an eight-sided, and some 20 to 25 feet in diameter. In this room the flour and ground grain is delivered. A level platform extends all around the building, from the outside of this room to the outside of the room below. There are two doors, in opposite sides, and wagons drive up, on one side or the other, and receive their loads from this platform.

The third story contains the bolts and stones. The flour falls through into the second story, and is taken by elevators into the fourth story, and thence projected down into the bolt in the 3d story.

The stones are French Burr, of the ordinary size; with a wooden hopper and hoop, of the fashion of 15 or 20 years ago.

The bolt, to us, is entirely a new thing. We suppose it is an old invention, but we never saw or heard of one like it before. It is a cylinder about 4 ft. long and 18 inches in diameter, covered with a fine wire-cloth. On the inside of it are four fine, soft, stiff, long hair brushes, of the entire length of the cylinder, revolving inside it, on arms like the fans in a common farmer's fanning mill. The bolt is stationary, on an angle of some 25 degrees. The flour is put into the upper end, and is forced through the wire-cloth by the centrifugal force of the brushes. The bolt is regulated by the difference in the texture of the cloth, the same as an ordinary silk cloth bolt, and by setting the brushes closer to, or farther from the cloth.

The bolt is set close to the floor, and the flour is discharged through into the story below.—It is not thrown into a bin, as ordinarily, but an open sack, tunnel-shaped, is hung to the several apartments of the bolt, and the bags of the customers are tied on to the lower mouth of these sacks, and the flour, middlings, bran, &c., is discharged from the bolt directly into the bags of customers.

The fourth story, some 15 ft. in diameter, contains the driving wheels and gearing.

On the top of this is the dome, of half globe form, rounding the building off like the top of an old fashioned straw bee-hive. From the top of the dome to the ground is about 50 ft.

The power propelling the machinery is derived from the wind blowing on four large wings of some 20 feet in length, fastened to a great shaft in the centre, forming a wheel some 40 ft. in diameter. The shaft is laid horizontally across the building, resting on "boxes" in the bottom of the dome. The dome is perfectly round, and rests on a set of small wheels, which run in a circular railway, round the top of the building. Opposite the wings which propel the mill, and high up above the dome, and out from it like the tail of a rooster, is a small wind wheel, like those which boys often attach to weather-cocks on the tops of barns, some 4 to 6 ft in diameter, which is geared into the railway under the dome. The wind strikes this small wheel and sets it going. It soon drives the dome and big wheel round into the wind's eye, in the proper place. The little wheel is so constructed as to turn either way, as the wind strikes on the top or bottom, and it always starts the way which will drive the dome round the shortest way to the proper position.

The big wheel's arms or wings are covered sail-cloth, which is spread out and furled up, as a sailor does the sails of a ship.

The mill cost $4000, and they told us it was a paying investment. The neighbors assured us it was a great convenience, and did good work.

AN agent of a manufacturing company, in a pleasant village of 'Old Rockingham,' New Hampshire, was rather noted for his meanness in money-matters. He also combined a great dislike of alcoholic drinks with a weakness for hardboiled eggs. Being in Boston one day, a friend, who was unacquainted with his peculiar tastes met him near the "Revere," and asked him to "imbibe." "Thank you," replied the agent, "I don't drink, but I'll take a boiled egg, and three cents."—Knick.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

New York Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Flour—Not a great deal doing and prices unchanged. Common flour but little offering, and scarcely any selling; quotations nominal; buyers and sellers wide apart in their views. State offering at 8,00, extra more freely offered, and on best grades a slight reduction is submitted to. Sales 1800 bbls. nearly all small parcels, to the trade who are buying at 9,62@10,00 for common to strait and choice State; 9,87@10,37 for common to good Ohio and common to fancy Michigan.—Canadian unchanged. Markets firmer. Sales 600 bbls., expected to-morrow, at 9,25.

Grain—There is but little wheat except Genesee offering—other descriptions pretty firm, while the better kinds lie rather dull. Prime new white Genesee held at 2,15@2,20, with buyers at 2,13—a small sale of 250 bus. white mixed at 2,25, which will be seen to be much above the market. Rye, less offering—market firm—1,21 refused. Nothing doing in barley.

Corn—receipts of corn quite limited—market firmer and holders of parcels in store, under the belief that prices must shortly advance materially, do not offer their stocks. There were only a few samples offered at the corn exchange this morning—Western mixed to arrive from the 15th of Sept. to the 15th of Oct was offered at 85 without finding purchasers. Sales 16,000 bus. at 85@88, the former price for unsound Western mixed; 86¼ for good co.—the outside figures for Western yellow.

Oats more plenty—market scarcely so firm sales 49@53 for State and Western.

From Mexico.

NEW ORLEANS, August 26.—By an arrival here this morning, the Picayune has received letters and full files of papers from the city of Mexico to the 20th instant. There are many items of news of importance and interest.

Another government victory is reported to have been gained on the 7th inst.

A famine is prevailing at Chihuahua and Chiapas, and many persons have died from starvation.

The crops in half the States were almost total failures.

Unless speedy relief reaches the unfortunate people, the ravages of famine will be frightful.

The government was on the point of adopting measures for the relief of the sufferers, and private subscriptions were being taken up for the same purpose.

The Indian troubles in Durango had been momentarily checked.

Armed bands of Indians, however, had appeared in other Districts, committing many depredations, and causing the inhabitants to flee for their lives.

It is estimated that 20 whites have been ruthlessly murdered by the Indians, during the previous week.

Discontent and revolution are spreading alarmingly through the country.

The Government was excercising strict censorship over the presses, and prevents the publication of actual facts which make the least allusion to the Government.

The Cholera and fever had nearly disappeared in Vera Cruz, the City of Mexico, and other places where it had been raging violently.

Several conspirators had been arrested by order of the Government, among whom were several prominent men.

Further by the Europa.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—The London Times has an article strongly censuring the administration of Gen Pierce for its conduct in the Greytown affair, and also the action of Congress on the Spanish question.

Smith O'Brien had written a letter to his family from Van Dieman's Land, that he was preparing to leave the country and return to Europe.

The accounts from Spain were giving great uneasiness, and it was thought that the impeachment of the Queen's mother would speedily lead to the abdiction of her daughter.

There was some prbability of a Customs union with Portugal.

BOSTON, August 31.—The barque Idahas arrived at Tarpaulings Cove, bringing later advices from the coast of Africa. She reports that the U. S. frigate Constitution was at Monrovia on the 8th of July, and the U. S. sloop-of-war Mercer was at Goree on the 25th. The latter left again on the following day for Gambia.

BOSTON, August 30.—The frigate San Jacinto will sail for the Baltic Sea on saturday.

One hundred seamen left the Charleston Navy yard to join the Independence now at N. Y., preparing to sail for the Pacific. The Cyane crew will soon be paid off and discharged.

WASHINGTON, August 31.—Gen. Quitman publishes letters in the Southern papers in which he ridicules the opinion of Judgr Campbell of New Orleans in the case of the alleged fillibusters.

The Union in alluding to the report, says that Gen Downs is not dead. He is. There can be no doubt of the sad occurrence.

NEW YORK, August 31.—The investigation of N. H. R. R. Co., in the late frauds is nearly concluded, and a full report will be made on Wednesday next. A meeting of stockholders will be held soon after a report is made to the public.

ALBANY, Aug. 31.—The State loan was taken at 112¼@116.

Markets.—In this village, wheat $1 ℔ bu.—Cranberries $1,50. Eggs 10 cts. Butter 14 cts.—Waupaca Spirit.

VERY RICH.—The Spiritual Harbinger, a paper printed in Rochester, N. Y., and advocating the spiritual rappings mania, has the following:

"In the twelfth hour the glory of God, the Lord in God, the Holy Procedure shall crown the Triune Creature with the perfect disclosive illumination. Then shall the creation in effulgence above the divine seraphinal arise into the dome of the disclosure in one comprehensive revolving galaxy of supreme created Beautitudes."

After copying the above paragraph, the Cayuga Chief responds as follows:

"Then shall blockheads in the jackassical dome of disclosive procedure, above the all-fired great leatherfungus of Peter Nip-ninneygo, the Gooseberry Grinder, rise into the dome disclosive until co-equal, and co-extensive and conglomerated lumuxes, in comprehensible mux, shall assimilate into nothing, and revolve into a bob-tailed pussy cat after the space where the tail was. Can the Harbinger understand our spiritual 'manifestations'?"

DRY CLOUDS.—Two boys among the blackberry bushes, some mile or two out of town, saw a cloud rising and heard a sound like thunder. One, who was a little timid, said to the other, come Fred, let's go home—it thunders. The other, not wishing to return home so soon, denied that it thundered at all. Directly the rumbling noise was again borne on the freshening breeze. What's that then? enquired the other. Why Fred, don't you know what that is? If you don't I'll tell you. You know it has been dry weather now for a long time. What clouds there are floating about are as dry as old sheepskins, and when the wind blows it rattles them. Hav'nt you often heard vessel's sails snap and crack when they were shivering in the wind? Well, just so dry clouds do, only they make a great deal louder noise because they are so much bigger. The cloud happening to sheer off in another direction, Bill's dry cloud story went down very well.—Buffalo Republic.

The young lady who let down the window curtain to keep the man in the moon from seeing her in her night clothes, has been seen at Church with a hole in her stocking!

A CURE FOR ALL!
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT!

CITIZENS OF THE UNION—
You have done me the honor as with one voice, from one end of the Union to the other, to stamp the character of my Ointment with your approbation. It is scarcely two years since I made it known among you, and already it has obtained more celebrity than any other Medicine in so short a period. THOMAS HOLLOWAY, 38, corner Ann and Nassau streets, New York.

ASTONISHING CURE OF SORE LEGS, AFTER NINE YEARS STANDING.
Copy of a Letter from Mr. W. J. Langley, of Huntsville, Yadkin Co., North Carolina U. S., dated Nov. 4, 1853.
☞ READ HIS OWN WORDS ☜
To Professor HOLLOWAY—
SIR: It is not my wish to become notorious, neither is this letter written for the mere sake of writing, but to say, that your Ointment cured me of one of the most dreadful cutaneous diseases that flesh is heir to, and which was considered by all who knew me, to be entirely beyond the reach of medicine. For nine years I was afflicted with one of the most painful and troublesome sore legs that ever fell to the lot of man; and after trying every medicine I had ever heard of, I resigned in despair all hope of being cured, but a friend brought me a couple of large pots of your Ointment, which caused the sores on my legs to heal, and I entirely regained my health, to my agreeable surprise and delight, and to the astonishment of my friends. (Signed) W. J. LANGLEY.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A BAD BREAST, WHEN NEARLY AT THE POINT OF DEATH.
Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. Durant, dated New Orleans, Nov. 9, 1853.
To Prof. HOLLOWAY, 38, cor. Ann and Nassau Sts., N. Y.
Dear Sir: It is with heartfelt gratitude I have to inform you, that by the use of your Ointment and Pills, the life of my wife has been saved. For seven years she had a bad breast, with ten running wounds, (not of a cancerous nature). I was told that nothing could save her; she was then induced to use your Ointment and Pills, when, in the short space of three months, they effected a perfect cure, to the astonishment of all who knew us. We obtained your medicines from Messrs. Wright & Co., of Chartres street, New Orleans. I send this from "Hotel des Princes," Paris, although I had written it at New Orleans, before we finally left, at that time not knowing your address at New York. (Signed) R. DURANT.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment, in most of the following cases:
Bad Legs,
Bad Breasts,
Burns,
Bunions,
Chilblains,
Chapped hands,
Contracted and Stiff Joints,
Fistulas,
Gout,
Glandular Swellings,
Lumbago,
Piles,
Rheumatism,
Salt Rheum,
Scalds,
Sore Nipples,
Sore Throat,
Skin diseases,
Scurvy,
Sore heads,
Ulcers,
Wounds.

₊ Sold at the establishment of Prof. HOLLOWAY, 38, corner of Ann and Nassau Streets, New York; also by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines thro'out the United States, in Pots, at 37½ cents, 87 cents and $1.50 cents each. To be had wholesale of the principal Drug Houses in the Union.
There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.
